

PUBLIC MEETING NOTICE

NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN that the City of Rocklin will hold a public meeting in the Council Chambers at the Rocklin Administration Building, 3970 Rocklin Road, Rocklin, beginning at 5:30 p.m. on Thursday, January 22, 2004 to discuss future Community Development Block Grant (CDBG) Applications and to solicit citizen input.

Maximum CDBG award limits include a total of $800,000 per year from the General and Economic Development Components combined. Up to $500,000 per application per year may be awarded from the General and Economic Development Components. Grants up to $35,000 per year from the General Planning and Technical Assistance allocation and $35,000 per year for Economic Development Planning and Technical Assistance allocation may be awarded and do not count toward the $800,000 cap. The Native American allocation is available for eligible activities in areas with concentrations of Native American Indians not federally recognized as an Indian tribe or rancheria. The amount of Native American funds available varies each year, and a grant from this allocation does not count toward the $800,000 cap.

The City will hold a discussion of local needs and possible activities for a 2004 CDBG funding proposal. Major activity categories are Housing - New Construction, Housing Acquisition, Housing - Rehabilitation, Community Facilities/Public Services, Public Works, and Economic Development. Projects funded with CDBG allocations must carry out at least one of three National Objectives, as follows: Benefit to Targeted Income Group (TIG) persons, elimination of slums and blight, or meeting urgent community development needs.

The Rocklin Community Development Department on behalf of the City of Rocklin anticipates applying for the maximum of $500,000 general and economic development component. The purpose of the public meeting will be to give citizens an opportunity to make their comments known. Those citizens in attendance are encouraged to ask questions and express their viewpoints about possible activities using CDBG funds to address local needs and about the existing CDBG program. If you are unable to attend the public hearing, you may direct written comments to the City's contact person: Terry A. Richardson, Community Development Director, City of Rocklin, 3970 Rocklin Road, Rocklin, CA 95677 or you may telephone (916) 625-5110. In addition, information may be obtained from the Public Information Binder located at the above address between the hours of 8:00 a.m. and 5:00 p.m., weekdays. If you have any questions regarding the Public Hearing, please call the City contact person.

The City promotes fair housing and makes all programs available to low and moderate-income families regardless of age, race, color, religion, sex, national origin, sexual preference, marital status, or handicap.

Court challenges to any public hearing items may be limited to only those issues which are raised at the public hearing described in the notice or in written correspondence delivered to the City at or prior to the public hearing. (Government Code 365009)

The City of Rocklin and the State of California does not discriminate in housing or employment on the basis of race, religion, sex, age, national origin, or handicap. The location of the public meeting is fully accessible to mobility impaired individuals.

In compliance with the Americans with Disabilities Act, the City of Rocklin encourages those with disabilities to participate fully in the public hearing process. If you have special needs in order to allow you to attend or participate in this public hearing process, please contact our office at 625-5160 well in advance of the public hearing or program you wish to attend so that we may make every reasonable effort to accommodate you.
